I'd like to get away from earth awhile
And then come back to it and begin over.
May no fate willfully misunderstand me
And grant what I wish and snatch me away
Not to return. Earth's the right place for love:
I don't know where it's likely to go better.
I'd like to go by climbing a birch tree,
And climb black branches up a snow-white trunk
Toward heaven, till the tree could bear no more,
But dipped its top and set me down again.
That would be good both going and coming back.
One could do worse than be a swinger of birches.

Beginning a season with only 12 returning lettermen isn't the easiest way to play football, but the Knights pulled together and produced their fifth consecutive winning season with five wins and four losses. For openers, Alter slipped by Farimont East, coming from behind in the third quarter, and won 12-7. The Knights then took to the road and rolled over a Lawrenceburg, Indiana team, 32-0. The next two defeats were suffered at the hands of two tough teams--Belmont 30-21, and Middletown 12-6. The Carroll Patriots were outclassed once more as the Knights handed them a 20-12 defeat. Hope for the single ownership of the conference title was lost as the Knights went down 34-20 at Springfield Central Catholic. For a homecoming victory, Alter tallied up 40 points to Miamisburg's 6 and the following weekend, conquered Lima Catholic 27-8. As always spirit was high for the Chaminade-Alter rivalry, but the Knights fell to defeat 6-0 when the Eagles scored late in the fourth quarter.

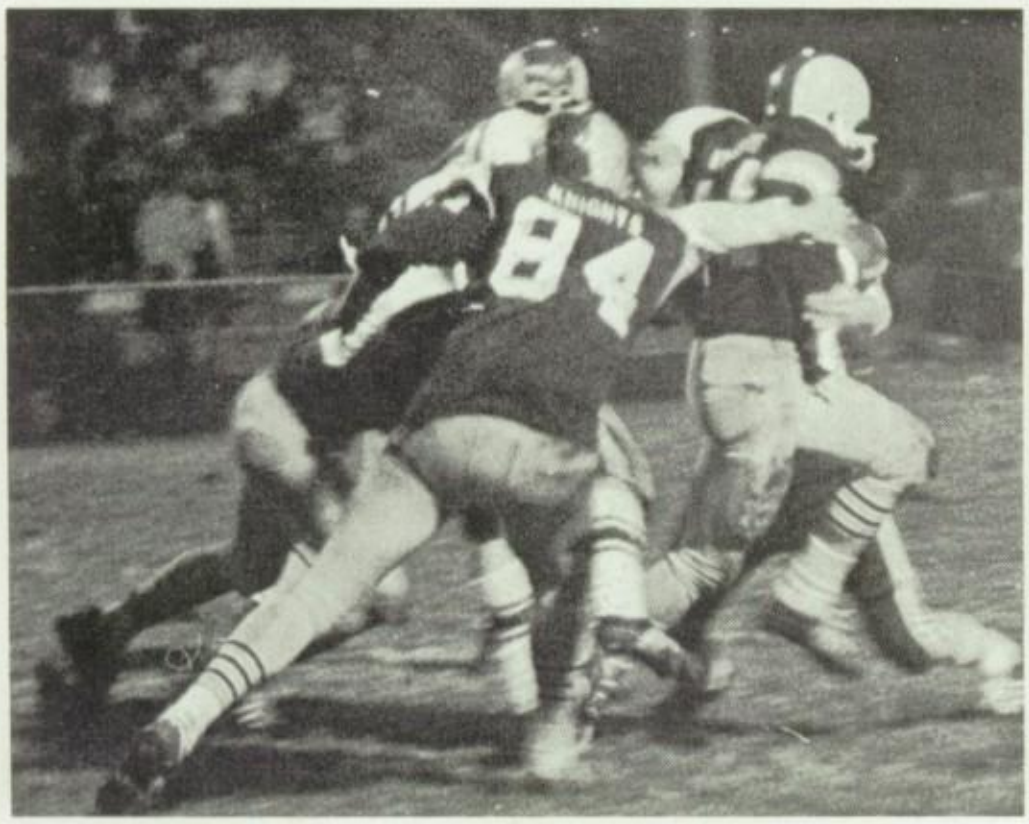
The Knights finally clicked in the 3rd quarter of the Fairmont East game, on a drive from their own 35, with Szabad carrying the ball for the 1st TD of the season. East gained a one point lead, late in the 3rd quarter, after recovering a fumble in the end zone, and the kick was good. Then Shawen starting from Alter's 25, hurled a 30 yd. pass to Berger bringing the ball to East's 5 yd. line. Szabad had the honors again, making the score 12-7. East's final drive was shattered by Tony Savino intercepting a pass with 2 seconds left in the game.

Despite a lagging offense, the Knights triumphed over Lawrenceburg 32-0. Paul Beyerle, and Tony Savino both intercepted passes and ran for touchdowns, 12 pts. Nick Savino chalked up 6 pts. in the 1st quarter, and Conway's PAT kick was good. 7 pts. Paul Carey connected 2 passes, one each, to Steve Wynn, and Tom Strohbar, who both sprinted for goals. Another 12 pts. Plus Shawen's extra point kick=32 pts. and Alter's second win of the season.



Belmont, using a pass play after a series of running plays, took the lead 18-0 in the first half. Alter threatened at the end of the 1st half, but an incomplete pass from the 5, prevented Alter from scoring. John McVay recovered a deflected punt and returned the ball 30 yds. to Belmont's 35. With the efforts of N. Savino, and Szabad, Savino carried the ball for a goal. Shawen's kick was good. A 65 yd. pass play let Berger score, and Alter got the extra point. The 4th quarter brought a TD to each team, and the score to 24-21. Alter tried an onside kick but was unable to recover. Belmont scored, and the game ended with Alter still trying, and the score 30-21.

While Alter was defeated by Middletown 12-6, the victory over Carroll, in the 1st MOL game, was satisfying. Steve Wald recovered a fumble on the 32, in the 2nd quarter; a pass to Conway was good for a goal, to catch up with Carroll's 12-0 lead. In the 2nd half, Savino carried the ball 40 yds. to the 14 on a pass from Shawen. Shawen scored behind the blocking of Cannarozzi, Colosimo, and Farmer. The kick was good. In the last minute of the game, John McVay intercepted a pass, and behind key blocks of Jim Kinzig, and Paul Carey, scored; the kick was good, and so was the score 20-12.

An agressive Springfield Catholic team defeated the Knights 34-20, in a MOL Contest breaking an Alter record by returning a kick of 78 yds. for a touchdown. Szabad charged 12 yds. for the 1st TD; Conway caught a pass from Shawen for a TD, and the other goal on a 3 yd. run, and a 2pt. conversion.

"We're pretty happy with the win," said Coach Bill Rankin of the homecoming victory over Miamisburg 40-6. Krul tallied up 3 TD's; Shawen ran 30 yds. for a goal; N. Savino sprinted 10 yds. for 6 pts., and John McVay ran a punt back, 35 yds., for a TD.

The Knight's 5th season victory, and 2nd MOL victory, was Lima Catholic 27-8. John McVay proved to be a good substitute for Savino, hurt early in the game. Dan Berger caught a TD pass, and Mike Shawen kicked a 30 yd. punt for an extra point.

Chaminade is always the zenith of the season, but proved to be a very disappointing defeat. Both teams scoreless through the 3rd quarter, with 1:31 remaining in the game, Chaminade scored. Alter's best chance for a goal came in the 2nd quarter before the half, but was destroyed when Chaminade intercepted a stray pass. The game ended in a 6-0 defeat for Alter.

HEALTH CAREERS — RED CROSS

St. Patrick's Day was a little happier for a number of disadvantaged kids; a few more smiling faces at St. E's, and Miami Valley, and Barney's because someone remembered. Health Careers Club remembered Bethany Lutheran Village, by designing placemats at Thanksgiving. Sometimes we don't realize how hard it is to be old, or sick, or even disadvantaged--and harder to be remembered.

SCIENCE

JCOWA

The Junior Council on World Affairs focused their attention on U. S. foreign policy this year. To supplement their study, 23 members participated in the High School Institute. Students from the Dayton area were involved in a two-day series of lectures and discussions on the topic. In an assembly at Alter, representatives from the Young Americans for Freedom presented their views on foreign policy toward Russia. In addition, JCOWA sponsored their annual UN mock assembly, foreign bazaar and dance during the week of October 20. Senior members of the club visited New York and Washington in March.

PHOTOGRAPHY

For hours spent on the sidelines instead of the stands; for passing time alone behind the closed door of a darkroom; for stubborn chemicals and sheets of photographic paper; for both the fuzzy focus and the brilliant angle--both good and poor results; we gratefully acknowledge the Photo Club for their help on this book.

KINGSMEN:

A group of Alter guys willing to spend some time at an orphanage across town, to scrape chewing gum out of corners and paint walls, to wash windows, to play baseball with the kid who bites, to play car-wash on a free afternoon, to help some other people.

YCS

During the year, 35 YCS members became notorious collectors. They accumulated such things as a pair of gym shoes, a can of pork and beans, somebody's brother's Bugs Bunny jigsaw puzzle, and some assorted coins for the Bishop's Relief. They all had their own collection of missions at Washington Manor Nursing Home, Dakota Street Center or Dayton State Hospital. In return, they collected a lot of friends.

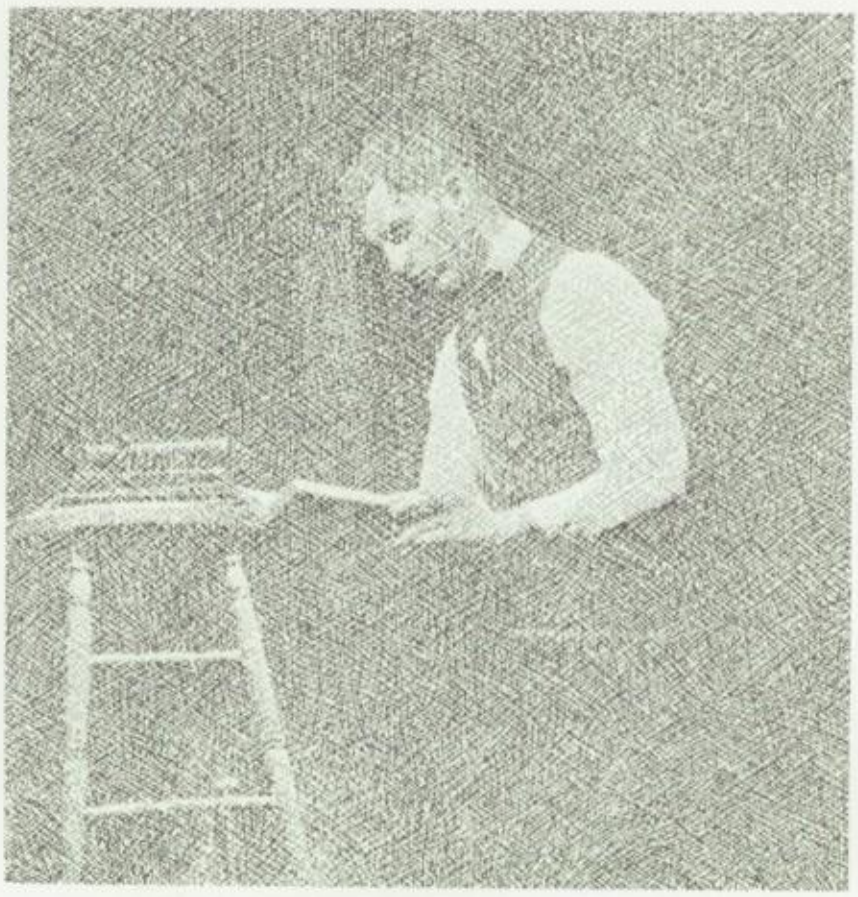
After months of special teaching, she discovers the outside world and, for the first time, she is confronted with both the good and the evil facts of life. Above all, however, Belinda begins to grasp the concept of love.



Hanging from the rafters to position lights, seeking out powdered wigs and brass beds, splicing reels of film and rolls of slides, creating gray hair in a matter of minutes, and running to Sandy's for snacks--behind every great cast, there's a great crew.

When someone is seeking, it happens quite easily that he only sees the thing that he is seeking; that he is unable to find anything, unable to absorb anything, because he is only thinking of the thing he is seeking, because he has a goal, because he is obsessed with his goal. Seeking means: to have a goal; but finding means: to be free, to be receptive, to have no goal. You are perhaps indeed a seeker, for in striving towards your goal, you do not see many things that are under your nose.

Deep within mankind, still asleep,
lies an immense power and truth which will awake only when persons have learned to break out of attitudes that are narrow and self-centered.
When individuals come to recognize the reality called "mankind", human life will present will learn to feel at home with the far-reaching realities of the universe.

SR. FRANCINE SCHULTE, B.A., M.A.
Vice-Principal

Teaching is an art. It has its own forms and styles. To teach is to make music with instruments, voices, oscilliscopes, sewing machines, foreign accents, typewriter keyes, T-squares, canvases, and prayer. To teach is to sit around in the lobby and talk after school, to take a student out to dinner, to chaperone a dance. To teach is to demonstrate the skills of passing a ball, running a mile, swinging a bat--and how to win or lose as well. To teach is to offer answers, to ask questions. To teach is to give--an opportunity, an example, an experience.

yeah here am i am standing
at the crest of a tallest hill with a trumpet
in my hand and dark glasses
on.

bearded and bereted i proudly stand!

i send down cool sounds!
  but there are no ears to hear me.

i am forgotten

To be cut off from other human beings
and their love,
to be cut off from all sense of God
and of his love,
to be cut off from what one believes to be one's real self and to be lodged in the body of a ghost who has lost the power to love:
this is loneliness.

i thank you God for this most amazing day;
for the leaping greenly spirit of trees and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything which is natural which is infinite which is yes.

— e. e. cummings

Before I built a wall I'd ask to know
What I was walling in or walling out,
And to whom I was like to give offence.
Something there is that doesn't love a wall,
That wants it down. I could say "Elves" to him,
But it's not elves exactly, and I'd rather
He said it for himself. I see him there Bringing a stone grasped firmly by the top
In each hand, like an old-stone savage armed.
He moves in darkness as it seems to me,
Not of woods only and the shade of trees.
He will not go behind his father's saying,
And he likes having thought of it so well
He says again, "Good fences make good neighbors."
--MENDING WALL, by Robert Frost

Golf, certainly not the most strenuous of sports yet one which demands a special type of ability for in this game as in few others, the participant is an individual. With no teammates to help or hinder him, the golfer depends only upon himself to make the shot and can blame no one if he blows it. To play the game well, a man must coordinate the best of his physical, mental, and psychological talents.

With junior Jim Kinzig, the only returning letterman and No. 1 player, the golf team started the season with little experience. Seniors Dan Navin and Rudy Wehner adequately filled the No. 2 and 3 positions on the team. The most pleasant surprise for Coach Martin Kocal was the fine play of sophomore Mike Augaitis. The highlight of the 1970 season was the golf team's two victories over archrival Chaminade, the only Alter team to do so this year.

LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE

YOU'VE GOT TO HAND IT, TO

PRESENTING A SAGA OF COLORADO: LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE!

Once upon a time, many years ago, a sweet little girl found herself lost in the Colorado woods. A Kodota Indian chief, by the name of Brown Bear, found the girl and adopted her, calling her Mary Sunshine, "'cause she merry, like sunshine," in the chief's words. Little Mary built the Colorado Inn, with the money she made selling her homemade cookies.

Little Mary is oft visited by the U. S. Forest Rangers, who have been known to march to the Canadian border and back, led by the fearless Captain "Big Jim" Warington--Little Mary's beloved. Early one morning, Indian Father hears the merry whistling of these hardy souls, returning from the Canadian border. Miss Mary welcomes the Rangers, looking for a sky of blue.

When Captain Jim tries to woo the Fairest Flower in the garden, (Little Mary), Mme. Ernestine Von Lebedich subtly hints that a man needs to settle down with a wife and "little poopshens." . . . Little Mary and Captain Jim go for a walk. Mme. Ernestine reflects in izzenschnooken on the lovely essenzook zee. The young gentlemen of the U. S. Forest Rangers say "how do you do?" to the young ladies from Eastchester Finishing School, caught swinging, and playing croquet! Corporal Billy Jester discovers that Nancy (Mary's maid), is his once in a blue moon girl. Captain Jim explains to Little Mary that the Rangers have come in search of a roving Indian band, led by Chief Brown Bear's believed lost son, Yellow Feather, who has vowed revenge upon Little Mary. Fleet Foot, an old Indian guide and one of the only two remaining Kadotas is to lead Cpt. Jim on his secret and dangerous mission. Captain Jim proposes before he leaves using the old Colorado Love Call trick. Cpl. Billy is left in charge. Little Mary is comforted by Mme. Ernestine, wishing every little no'sing away. The Colorado Inn is all astir and everyone asks "what has happened?" The shadow of Yellow Feather is upon the Inn.

Such a merry party is disturbed by Gen. "Uncle Oscar" Fairfax of Philadelphia. He explains that Captain Jim must be found, and the Forest Rangers go marching off. Cpl. Jester becomes a heap big injun; Naughty Nancy dons the disguise of Mata Hari, all to find Cpt. Jim, while Mme. Ernestine and Gen. Fairfax ask the Musical Question, "do you ever dream of Vienna?" While the Rangers play the shell game in the forest, Little Mary calls her coo coo. Her sweet song is interrupted by the appearance of Yellow Feather, who swiftly ties her to a tree, and gags her. Cpt. Jim's Colorado Love Call is heard again. He is victorious against Yellow Feather.

Gen. Fairfax gives the deed for the land rightfully due to the Kadota tribe to Chief Brown Bear. The Chief gives Little Mary the land on which the Colorado Inn stands, and the remainder to his adopted son, Yellow Feather II (Cpl. Jester). Little Mary is with Cpt. Jim, Nancy has Billy, Mme. Ernestine is with Gen. Fairfax, the Rangers are with the Ladies, Yellow Feather is without reprise, and Fleetfoot is with Brown Bear, who all agree that they have to hand it to Little Mary Sunshine!

"KADOTA!"

"IT'S NICE TO HAVE YOU HERE AGAIN!"

"IT'S SUCH A PLEASURE, LITTLE MARY!"

"...I LIKE THE MEN!"

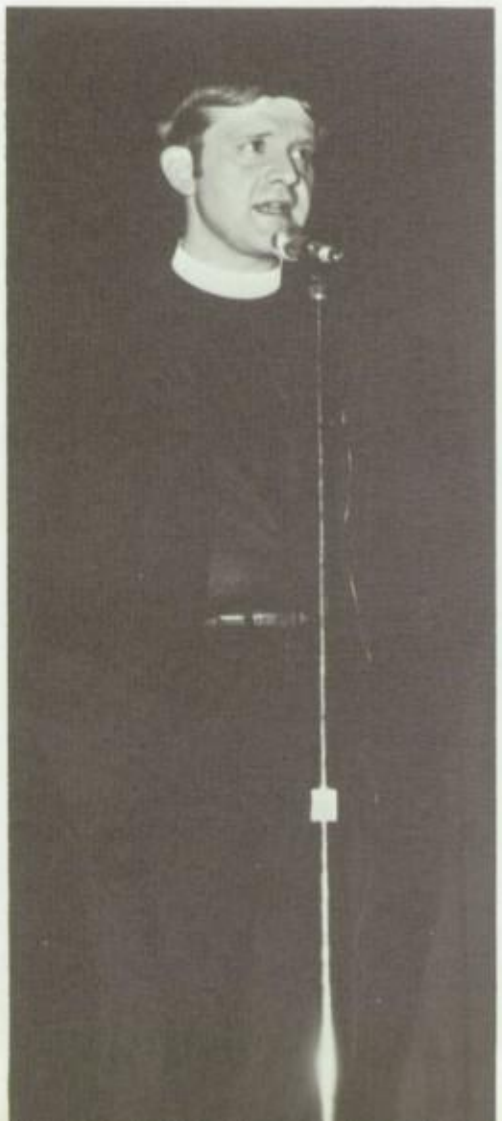
where am i gonna find a parachute?...how did i get to be a committee head to make four thousand tissue flowers?...me? know how to paint?...i suppose i could start asking around if anybody just happened to be stuck with an old parachute in their garage..."a hundred and one easy steps to build a paddle wheel"...who is gonna let their nice little girl be in a kick-line for some stupid entertainment at a prom?... why can't we get Blood, Sweat and Tears?...maybe we've got a parachute in the attic...what if we can't fit the paddle wheel through the gym door?...who thought of this theme in the first place?...

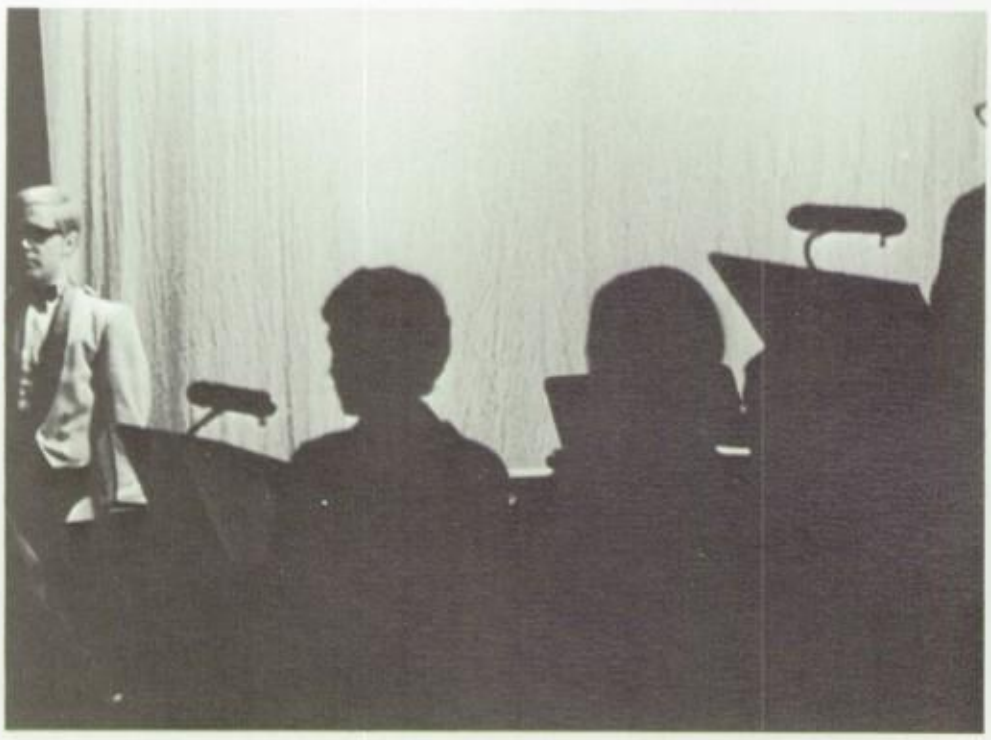
PROUD MARY

From the first crepe paper flowers to the last cookie crumbs, the junior class knew they had accomplished something together. For them, the prom had lasted three months.



PROM COURT: Carol Davis, escort Harry Cassano; Vicky Ireton, escort Dan Brannigan; Queen Kay Staley, escort Mike Shawen; Helen Schmitz, escort Rudy Wehner; Donna Savino, escort John Scott.

The years 1812--1970
cover a wide variety
of music:
folk tunes,
Negro spirituals,
alleluias,
pop music,
space odysseys,
Simon and Garfunkel,
and overtures
complete with flashing
cannons.
It doesn't matter
what year or season
or era it is,
because good music
lasts a long time.



In the instant of remaking, just the giving of the taking;
— in the instant of the living; just the taking of the giving.

— Peter Yarrow

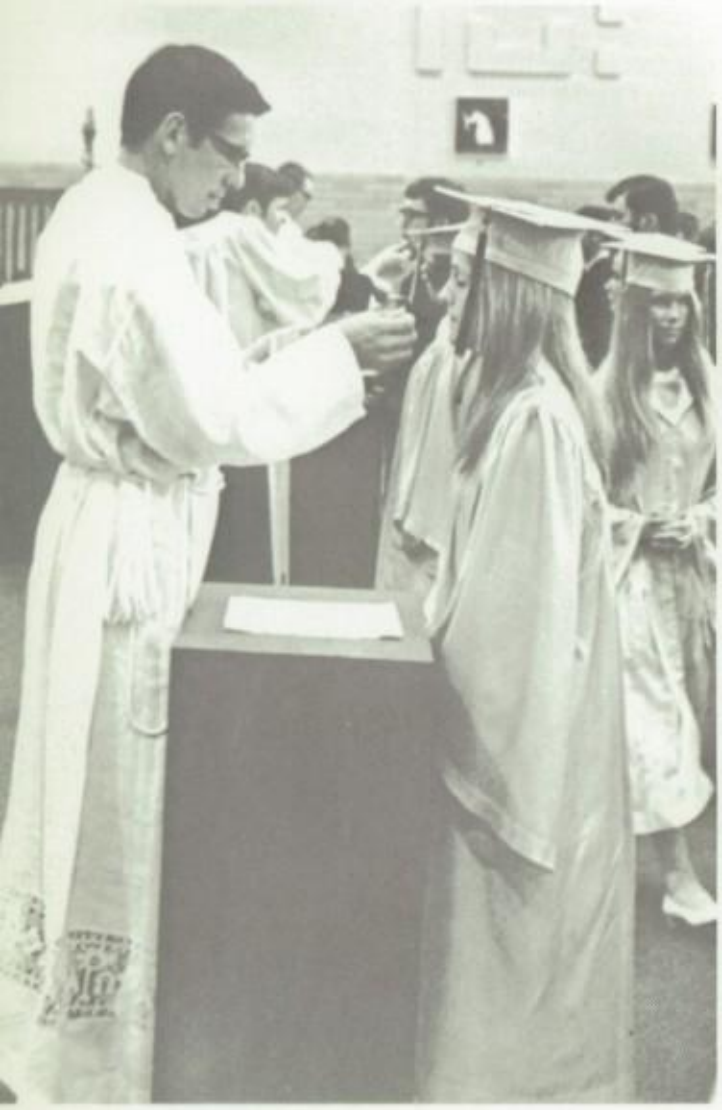
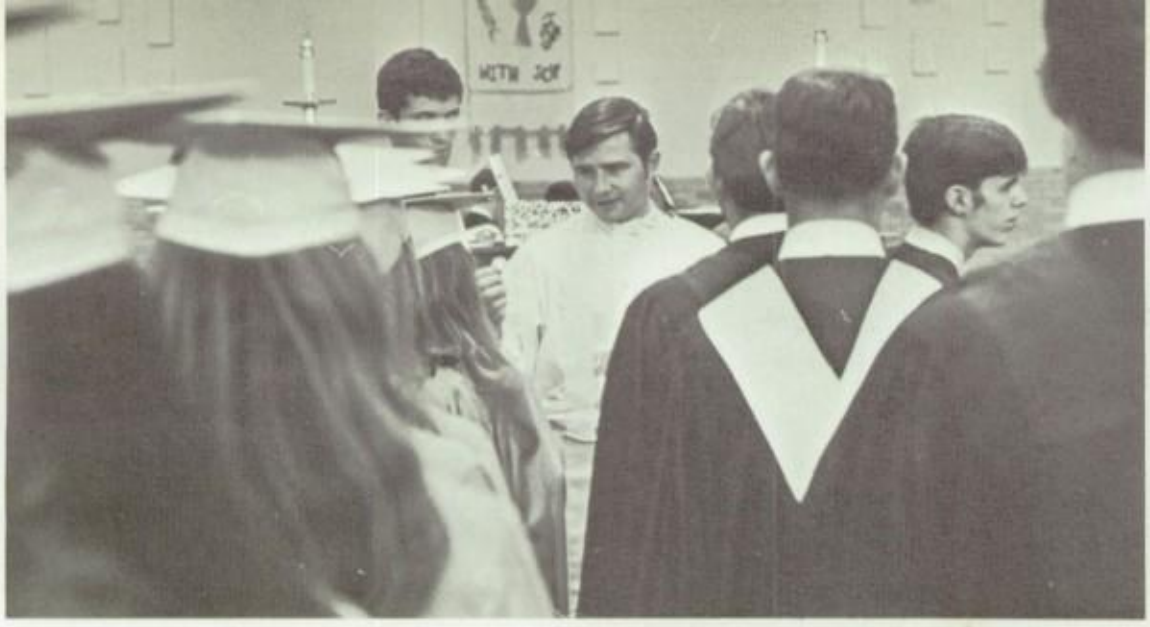
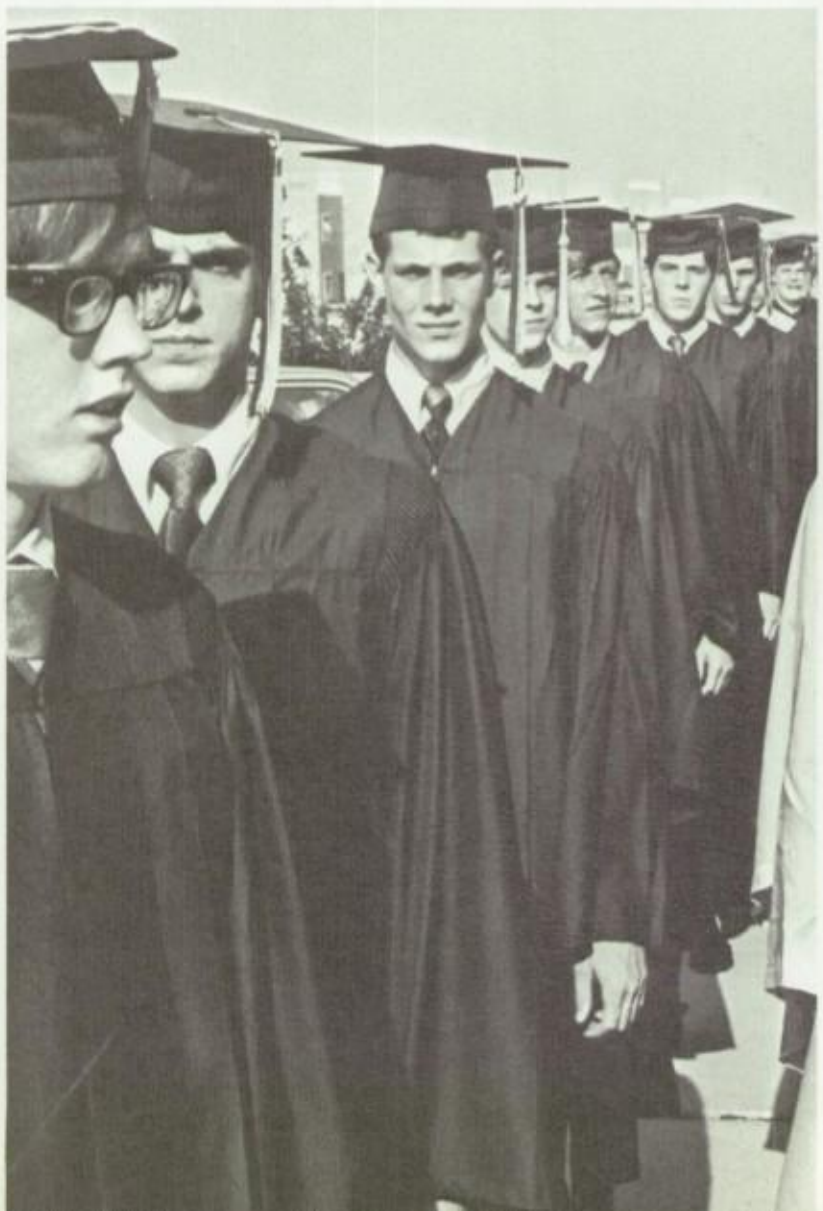
COMMENCEMENT



Knowledge can be communicated, but not wisdom. One can find it, live it, be fortified by it, do wonders through it, but one cannot communicate and teach it.

-- SIDDHARTHA, by Hermann Hesse





For all things are yours... the world or life or death or the present or the future, all are yours.
-- 1 Corinthians 3:21-22

...and this is the weaving of human living;
of whose fabric each individual is a part:
each is intimately connected with the bottom and the extremest reach of time:
and not one of these things nor one of these persons is ever quite to be duplicated nor replaced:
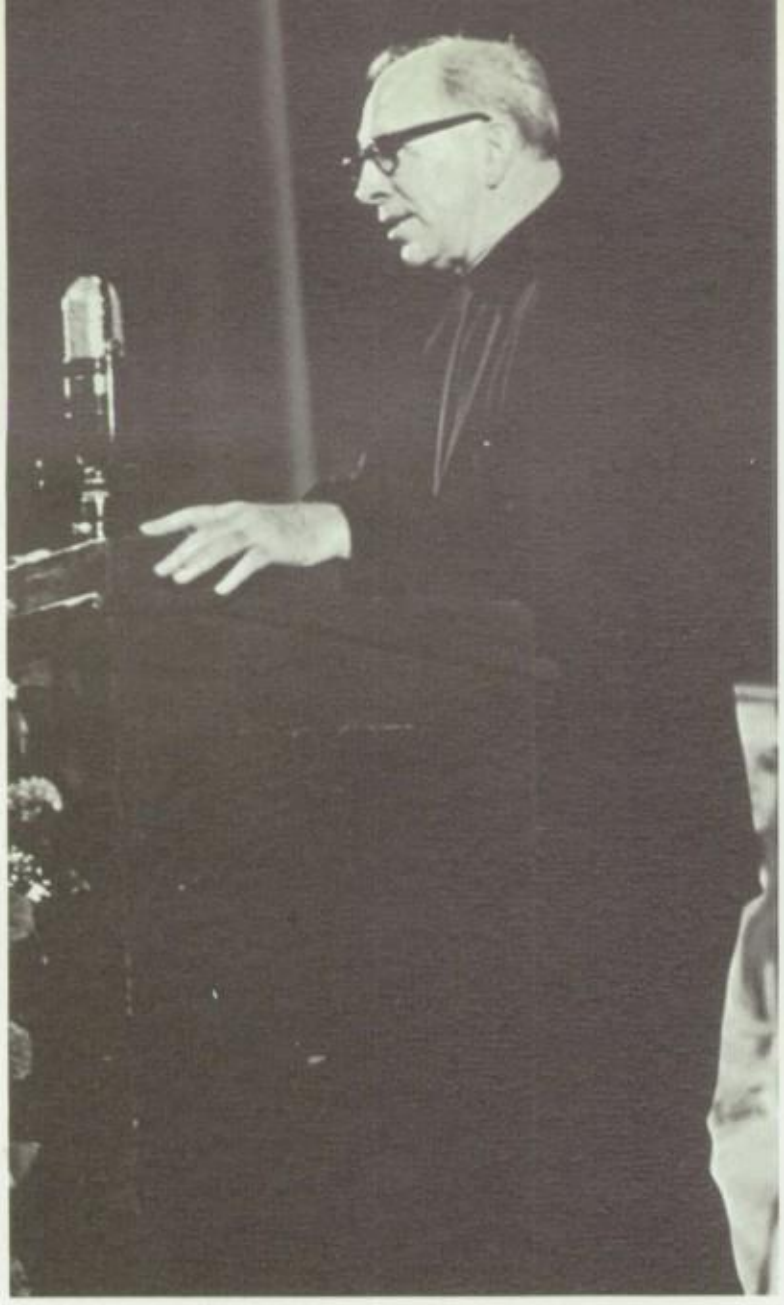
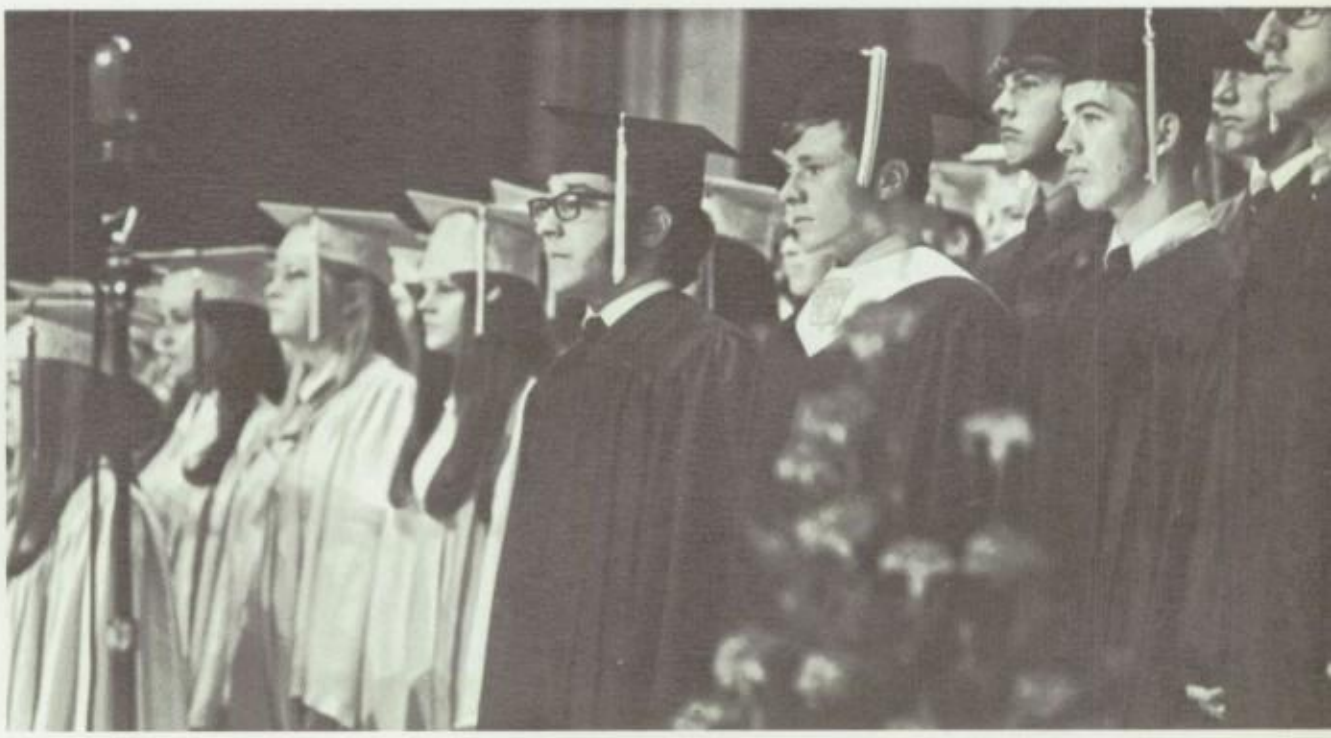
but each is a new and incommunicably tender life,
wounded in every breath, sustaining, for a while,
without defense, the enormous assaults of the universe.
--James Agee and Walker Evans





The class of 1970 was honored by Archbishop Karl J. Alter, who made the presentations of the top awards to the graduates at the Senior Awards Assembly. Fr. Mark Schmieder, a former faculty member, spoke to the seniors at the Baccalaureate Mass, celebrated at St. Charles Church. Class chairmen, Rudy Wehner and Maribeth Lammers, presented the class gifts: $750 dollars to Barney Children's Medical Center, and classroom clocks to Fr. Edward F. Haskamp. Salutatorian Joe Wehrman, and Valedictorian Pat Fullenkamp spoke to the Class of 1970 at N. C. R. Auditorium at the Fifth Commencement Exercises. Reverend George Barrett, Vice-President of the University of Dayton, gave the address to the graduates.

the end.

At times he heard within him a soft, gentle voice,
which reminded him quietly, complained quietly,
so that he could hardly hear it.
Then he suddenly saw clearly that he was leading a strange life, that he was doing many things that were only a game,
that he was quite cheerful and sometimes experienced pleasure,
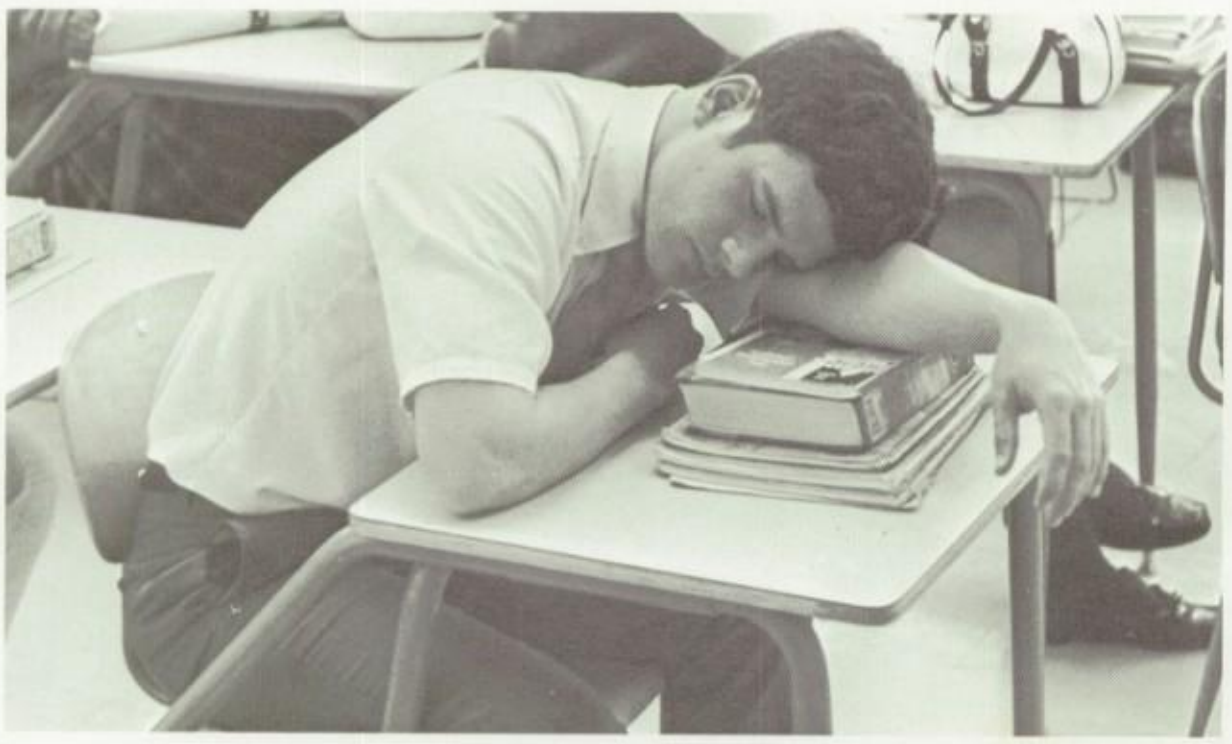
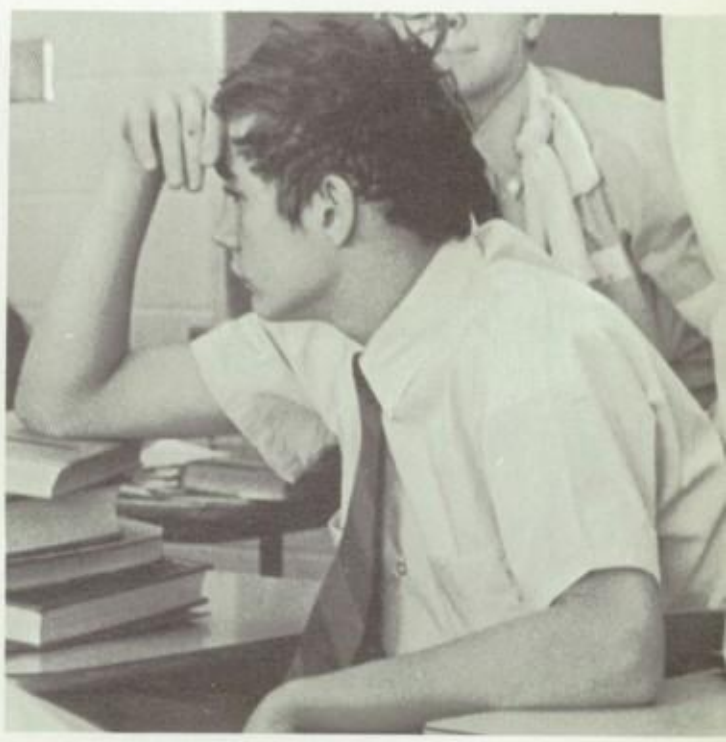
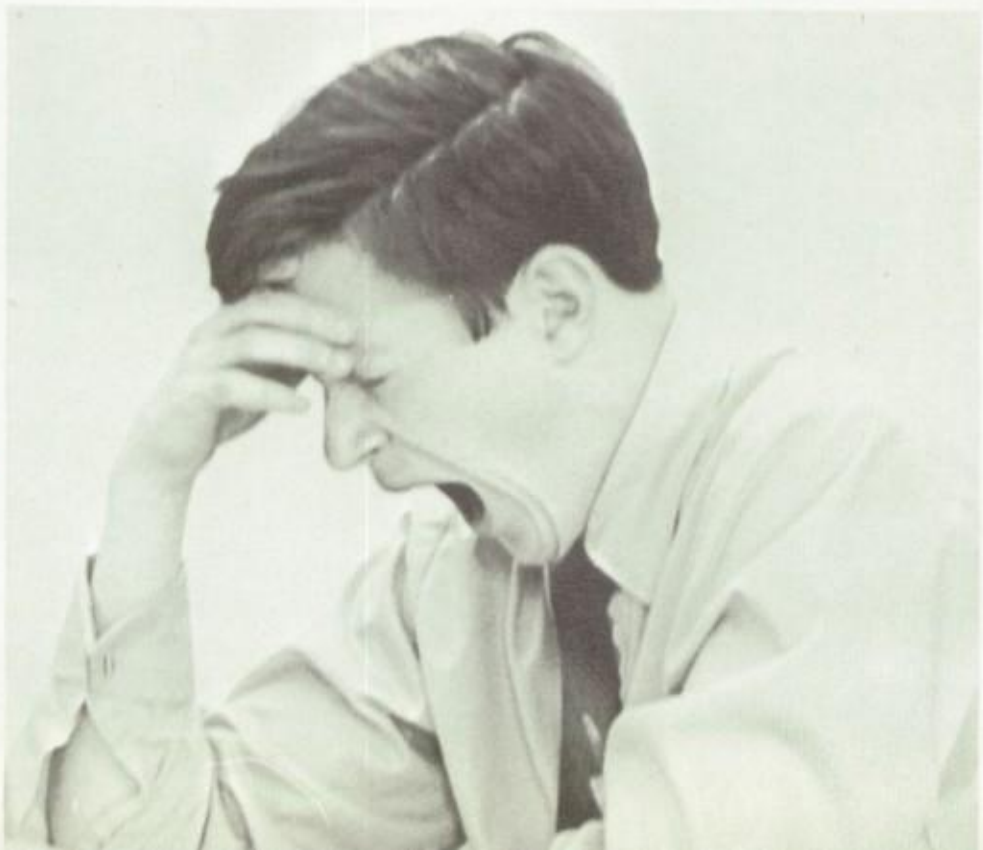
but that real life was flowing past him
and did not touch him.
Like a player who plays with his ball,
he played with his business, with the people around him,
watched them, derived amusement from them;
but with his heart, with his real nature,
he was not there.
His real self wandered elsewhere, far away,
wandered on and on invisibly
and had nothing to do with his life.

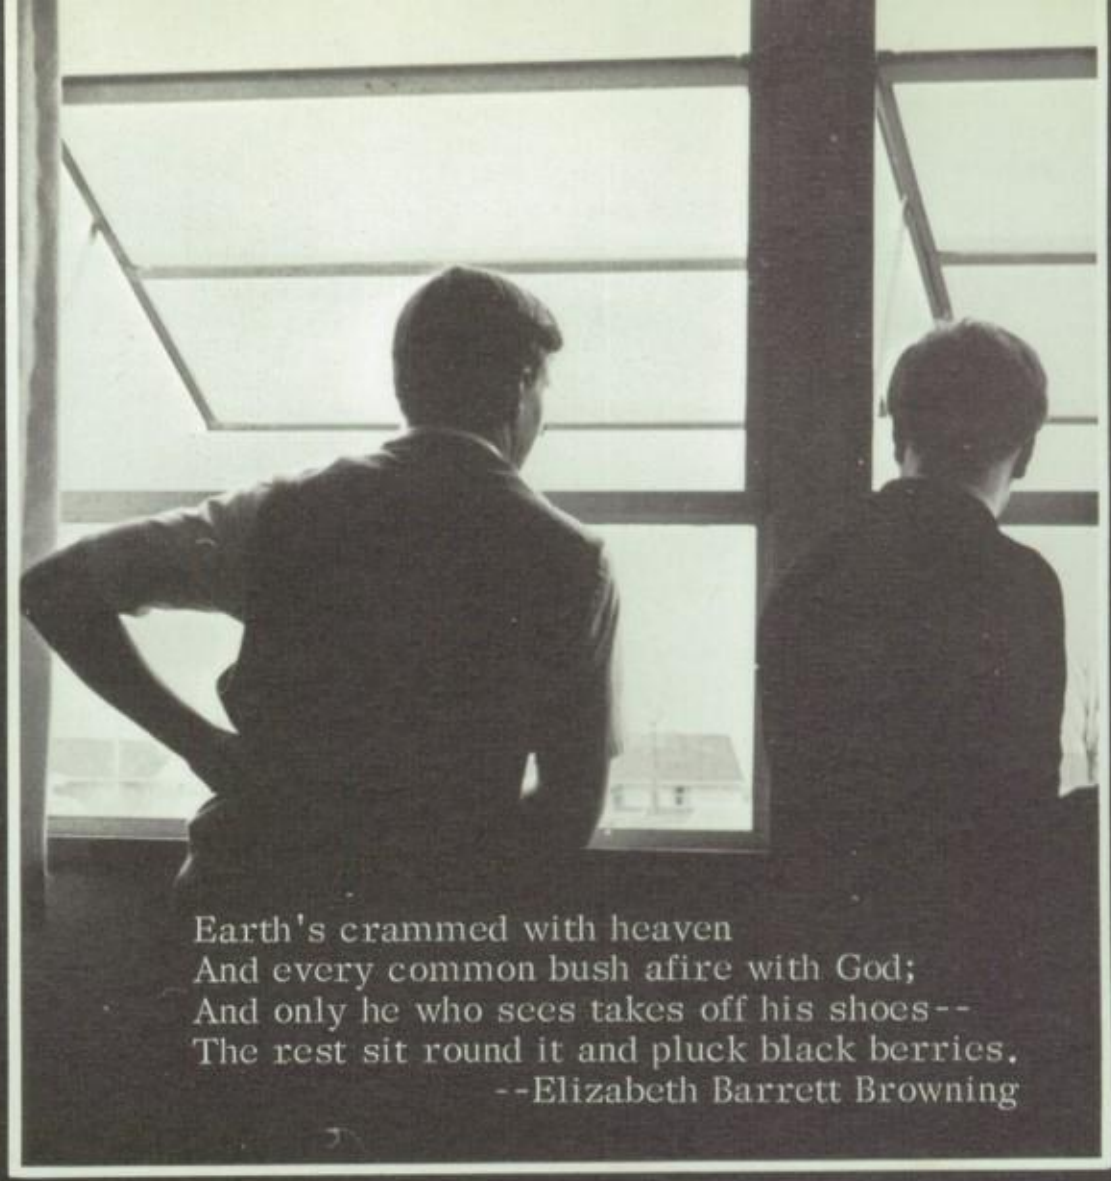
--Hermann Hesse

Man is like a breath;
his days,
like a passing shadow.
--Psalm 143:4









Earth's crammed with heaven
And every common bush afire with God;
And only he who sees takes off his shoes--
The rest sit round it and pluck black berries.
--Elizabeth Barrett Browning

The crisis of our time, as we are beginning slowly and painfully to perceive,
is a crisis not of the hands
but of the hearts.

--Archibald MacLeish

Man is essentially a freedom-event. — Karl Rahner

...The artist appeals to that part of our being which is not dependent on wisdom:
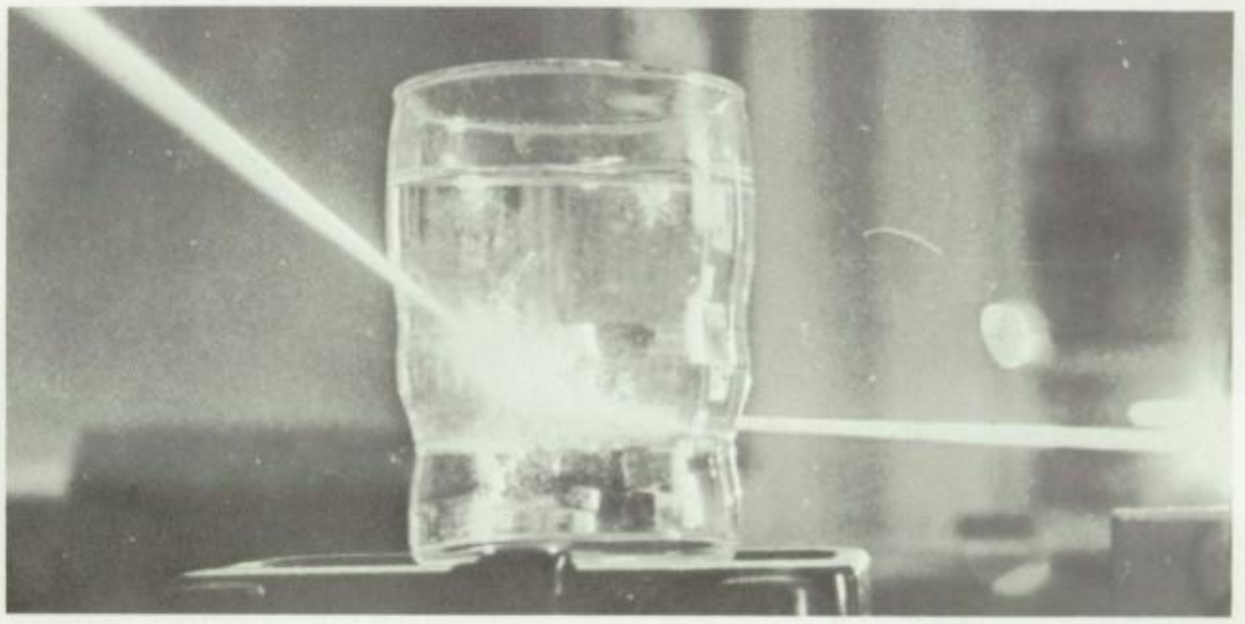
to that in us which is a gift and not an acquisition...
He speaks to our capacity for delight and wonder,
to the sense of mystery surrounding our lives;
to the sense of pity, and beauty, and pain;
to the latent feeling of fellowship with all creation.
--Joseph Conrad

I shall never be cured
until all reality
comes streaming
like an ecstatic,
intoxicating melody
into my heart.
— Karl Rahner



I believe that man will not merely endure
he will prevail
He is immortal
not because he alone among creatures has an inexhaustible voice
but because he has a soul
a spirit capable of compassion and sacrifice and endurance.

--William Faulkner

Well, I guess that just about wraps it up. I mean, for better or worse, this is a comedy, and I don't think we'd better go any further. No, definitely not. So, let's leave things as they are right now...while everybody's happy...while everybody's got what he wants...or everybody's got what he thinks he wants. Good night, dears.
